NTC GREAT LAKES (COMPLEX) INSTRUCTION 5530.1B

Subj: PHYSICAL SECURITY REVIEW BOARD

Ref: (a) OPNAVINST 5530.14C
(b) NTCGLAKESINST 5500.11B

1. Purpose. To set forth policy and guidelines for coordination of physical security requirements throughout Naval Training Center (NTC) Complex and Navy Hospital commands.
2. Cancellation. NTCGLAKESINST 5530.1A. This instruction has been substantially revised and should be reviewed in its entirety.
3. Discussion. A successful Physical Security and Loss Prevention Program for NTC Complex must receive command attention to provide direction and priority and ensure the effective and efficient management of this vital program. Commanding Officers, Officers-in-Charge and activity heads will provide coordinated action to ensure the security procedures mandated in reference (a) are incorporated into the command and installation physical security plan. The NTC Physical Security Review Board (PSRB) serves as the avenue for this coordination between component and tenant commands at NTC and as a means to implement the provisions of references (a) and (b).
4. Membership. As established in reference (a), Commanding Officers, Officers-in-Charge and activity heads of each tenant and component activity within NTC complex or their designated representatives shall serve as members of the PSRB. The Director, Department of Public Safety shall serve as Chairman of the PSRB.
5. Action
  - a. The PSRB shall meet annually or as required by the Chairman.
